Who We Are

FreshlyMaid is a proudly Zimbabwean, catering company based in Harare. The company has been in the industry since 2008 and has catered for a wide range of events and occasions since then. The company is led by Tinashe Paradza and Gerald Siziva who have taken a hands-on approach in the business because of their love for food.

We are Harare based event caterer and thus we are able to provide catering services to clients across the city and the surrounding areas as we have a mobile unit and are well experienced in outdoor events.

Our aim for our clients is to enhance each customer's experience ensuring that each of our clients have the right offer to meet their needs. We aim to provide total solutions for our clients ensuring they get the best value whilst eliminating the stress that comes with such events for our clients. We are dedicated to ensuring customers' expectations are exceeded by offering industry leading innovations and international standards of quality.
